Rao made, the travellers generally go by it and scarcely via Bandihalli as it is abnt 3 miles away from the road. Therefore the Chattram at Bandihalli has now become less useful. The Representative Members are therefore right in suggesting its transfer to Huliyurdoorga.

Sir

With reference to your docket No. 42 of the 12th Ultimo, calling for opinion about the transfer of the feeding chattram at Bandihalli in the Kunigal Taluk to Hulingurdurga in the same Taluk, I have the honor to state as follows-

2. The Chattram in question is not a Government institution — the village wherein it is situated, viz Bandihalli, is not a Government village but a Surwamania village. That village and five others were granted by His Highness the late Maha Raja to Damodara das Sait in 1830 for the aid of the several Charities established by him in several places viz in the said village of Bandihalli in the Kunigal Taluk and in the Taluks of Sreranga-patna and Malavalli. The Chatram at Bandihalli was established by the said Sait and the Final Quit-Rent Register issued by the Inam Department shews that that village was granted for the support of that Chattram and some temples and also for personal benefit. At present a parpathegar, a cook and a sweeper are maintained in the Chattram at a cost of Rupees 7-"-" per month. Previous to the construction of the road from Kunigal to Maddoor via Hanligir-droog persons going from Kunigal to Maddoor were passing through Bandihalli and so the Chattram then was useful to them. Now that a road

Sir,

With reference to your docket No: 392 dated the 12th October 1893 enquiring if the heirs of Damodar Doss Sét are willing to the transfer of Bhandikalli Chatram to Sulkijurdoorga and if there is any suitable Government building at the latter place to conduct feeding therein, I have the honor to state that as the heirs of Damoda Doss Sét viz his grand daughter Jamuna bayamma and brother's wife Subhadrabayamma are said to be living at Madras no enquiries could be made of them regarding their willingness to the said transfer. Their agent at Sulkijurdoorga however—says that he is not willing to the transfer because the proceeds of the Mandeballi Sarvamanyam Village are to be spent not only for the maintenance of this Chattram but also for the newly restored temples under their management. This is probably an excuse to evade supervision. —

2 A part of the old Taluk cutcherry at Huliyurdoorga can be made available for the Chatram. —
